

Evolva hosted a successful public webinar on benefits of resveratrol

20 April 2016 – Evolva Commercial Technical Director Ernesto Simón hosted an online information session on the role of resveratrol in healthy ageing on 29 March 2016. The meeting was well attended by a broad range of industry experts, including product development, R&D and nutritionist functions. The webinar was very interactive and concluded with a Question & Answer session that further addressed the benefits of resveratrol. Click here to access a replay of the webcast.

Resveratrol is found in the skin of red grapes, berries, peanuts and a variety of plants. It is often associated with red wine and the so-called French Paradox. In the plant world, resveratrol plays a role in counteracting the effects of environmental stressors from things like pests, disease, and the extreme weather caused by climate change.

The leading British Economist newspaper recently published an interesting article, summarising scientific findings on the benefits of resveratrol.

Evolva produces and sells resveratrol to distributors and other business-to-business customers.
